P R E F A C E.

I HAVE long been desirous, and have waited several years, to see a publication of the nature of the following. And though I was sensible I could publish nothing of the kind without the fatigue and expence of travelling over greatest part of the continent; yet, at the request of many, I have been prevailed upon to make the tour of the Baptist Churches, to obtain the necessary information. With a view to this I have travelled about 7000 miles, in about 18 months, chiefly on foot; and have visited about 215 Churches, and 15 Associations. I am personally acquainted with 250 Ministers of our Society, so that the Register may safely be depended upon in general, though after all, perhaps, a few Churches and Ministers may be omitted. It is probable also, that the number of members in some Churches may not be exact, as some do not associate—others who do, neglect to send forward their number—and some make conscience of numbering the people.

Having been brought up with a view to the business of merchandize, I have been accustomed to keeping accounts; and I now prefer accounts of souls with their faces set Zionward, to those which only respect money or trade. I have a natural turn for travelling, and I am convinced I could not better spend my time, than in itinerating to preach the Gospel, and to collect materials which may assist the future historian; and though I have met with many discouragements from narrow-minded persons, whose illeberal souls are not concerned for the public welfare; I appeal to the searcher of hearts, that my principal design is to make the Baptists better acquainted with each other, that union may more generally obtain amongst them.

I design to open a correspondence with the several Associations, and Churches who do not associate, that future accounts may be more compleat and correct than the present.

JOHN ASPLUND,
a Sweed.

Southampton County, Virginia, July 14, 1791.

§ There are a great many Churches mixt with this sentiment, and Ministers also, not noted.

As this account got to be rather too late getting out from the press, I can inform the reader, that according to accounts, I find not any particular revival: but still within these twelve months, there has been added 1500 members to the baptist society on the continent, and perhaps 30 churches constituted. There is in reality more baptists than on this list, when we consider those who have not joined any church, excommunicated, &c. and a large number attend the meetings, at least three times as many as have joined the church.

An abstract of principles held by the Baptists in general, agreeable to the confession of faith adopted by upwards of one hundred congregations in England, and published in Philadelphia, 1742; which is as a standard for the Baptists.

“ 1. WE believe in one only true and living God; and that there are three persons in the Godhead, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost.

“ 2. We believe that the scriptures of the Old and New Testament are the word of God, and the only rule of faith and practice.

“ 3. We believe in the doctrine of eternal particular election.

“ 4. We believe in the doctrine of original sin.

“ 5. We believe in man's impotency to recover himself from the fallen state he is in by nature, by his own free will ability.

“ 6. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God, only by the imputed righteousness of Christ.

“ 7. We believe that God's elect shall be called, converted, regenerated, and sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

“ 8. We believe that the saints shall persevere in grace, and never fall finally away.

“ 9. We believe that baptism and the Lord's supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ, and that true believers are the subjects of these ordinances—And we believe that the true mode of baptism is by immersion.

M

“ 10 We

“ 10. We believe in the resurrection of the dead, and a general judgment.

“ 11. We believe the punishment of the wicked will be everlasting, and the joys of the righteous will be eternal.

“ 12. We believe that no ministers have a right to the administration of the ordinances, only such are regularly called, and come under imposition of hands by the presbytery, &c. &c.

The plan or constitution of the regular Baptist Associations, or the substance thereof.

PREAMBLE.—From a long series of experience, we, the churches of Jesus Christ, being regularly baptized upon the profession of our faith in Christ, are convinced of the necessity of a combination of churches, in order to perpetuate an union and communion amongst us, and preserve and maintain a correspondence with each other in our union :—We therefore propose to maintain and keep the orders and rules of an association, according to the following plan or form of government.

ARTICLE I. The association shall be composed of members chosen by the different churches in our union, and duly sent to represent them in the association; who shall be members whom they judge best qualified for that purpose, and producing letters from their respective churches, certifying their appointment, shall be entitled to a seat.

ART. II. In the letters from the different churches, shall be expressed, their members in full fellowship, those baptized, received by letter, dismissed, excommunicated, and dead since the last association.

ART. III. The members thus chosen and convened, shall have no power to lord it over God's heritage; nor shall they have any classical power over the churches; nor shall they infringe any of the internal rights of any church in the union.

ART. IV. The association, when convened, shall be governed and ruled by a regular and proper decorum.

ART. V. The association shall have a moderator and clerk, and shall be chosen by the suffrage of the members present.

ART. VI. New churches may be admitted into this union, who shall petition by letter and delegates, and upon examination (if found orthodox and orderly) shall be received by the association, and manifested by the moderator, giving the delegate the right hand of fellowship.

ART. VII. Every church in the union shall be entitled to representation in the association.

ART. VIII. Every query presented by any member in the association, shall be once read: and before it be debated the moderator shall put it to vote, and if there be a majority for its being debated, it shall be taken into consideration, and be deliberated; but if there be a majority against it, it shall be withdrawn.

ART.

ART. IX. Every motion made and seconded, shall come under the consideration of the association, except it be withdrawn by the member who made it.

ART. X. The association shall endeavour to furnish the churches with the minutes of the associations. The best method for effecting that purpose shall be at the discretion of the future associations.

ART. XI. We think it absolutely necessary that we should have an association fund, for defraying the expences of the same; for the raising and supporting of which, we think it is the duty of each church in the union, to contribute voluntarily, such sums as they shall think proper, and send by the hands of their delegates to the association; and those monies thus contributed by the churches, and received by the association, shall be deposited in the hands of a treasurer by the association, who shall be accountable to the association for all monies by him received and paid out according to the direction of the association.

ART. XII. There shall be an association book kept, wherein the proceedings of every association shall be regularly recorded, by a secretary appointed by the association, who shall receive a compensation yearly, for his trouble.

ART. XIII. The minutes of the association shall be read (and corrected if need be) and signed by the moderator and clerk before the association rises.

ART. XIV. Amendments to this plan or form of government may be made at any time by a majority of the union, when they may deem it necessary.

ART. XV. The association shall have power,

1. To provide for the general union of the churches.
2. To preserve inviolably a chain of communion amongst the churches.
3. To give the churches all necessary advice in matters of difficulty.
4. To enquire into the cause why the churches fail to represent themselves at any time in the association.
5. To appropriate those monies by the churches contributed, for an association fund, to any purpose they may think proper.
6. To appoint any member or members, by and with his or their consent, to transact any business which they may see necessary.
7. The association shall have power to withdraw from any church in this union, which shall violate the rules of this association, or deviate from the orthodox principles of religion.
8. To admit any of the distant brethren in the ministry, as assistants, who may be present at the time of their sitting, whom they shall judge necessary.
9. The association shall have power to adjourn themselves to any future time or place they may think most convenient to the churches in the union.

RULES

R U L E S O F D E C O R U M.

1. The association shall be opened and closed by prayer.
2. A moderator and clerk shall be chosen by the suffrage of the members present.
3. Only one person shall speak at a time, who shall rise from his seat and address the moderator when he is about to make his speech.
4. The person thus speaking shall not be interrupted in his speech by any except the moderator, till he is done speaking.
5. He shall strictly adhere to the subject, and in no wise reflect on the person who spoke before; so as to make remarks on his slips, failings, or imperfections; but shall fairly state the case and matter as nearly as he can, so as to convey his light or ideas.
6. No person shall abruptly break off, or absent himself from the association, without liberty obtained from it.
7. No person shall rise and speak more than three times to one subject without liberty obtained from the association.
8. No member of the association shall have liberty of laughing during the sitting of the same, nor whispering in the time of a public speech.
9. No member of the association shall address another in any other terms or appellations but the title of brother.
10. The moderator shall not interrupt any member in, or prohibit him from speaking till he give his light on the subject, except he break the rules of this decorum.
11. The names of the several members of the association shall be enrolled by the clerk, and called over as often as the association requires.
12. The moderator shall be entitled to the same privilege of speech as another member, provided the chair be filled, and he shall have no vote, unless the association be equally divided.
13. That any member who shall willingly and knowingly break any of these rules, shall be reproved by the association, as they shall think proper.

HAVING no time now to write upon practical religion, which ought to be inculcated by every faithful minister of Christ, hoping that my dear brethren will consider thoroughly these following inconsistencies among us, contrary to the doctrine of our Master Jesus, and to our holy profession, viz.

1. Keeping our fellow-creatures in bondage, who have as good a right as we, both

both to civil and religious liberty—Not only so; but misusing them, concerning common blessings, which certainly is a violation of the rights of nature, and inconsistent with a republican government.

2. Family duty greatly neglected. We should bring up our children to work and learning, that they may be at least useful members of society.

3. Extravagance or superfluity, not only in eating or drinking, but especially in dress, that we may not be conformed to the sinful customs of this world; but be a separate people, denying all ungodliness and worldly lust, &c.

4. The support of the gospel, that God's servants may be wholly given up to their great calling, and that every thing may be decent in the house of God, and our poor brethren supported.

5. Strict attendance on our public worship, communion seasons, and church meetings for business, as our indispensable duty.

6. That our brethren who are called to the ministry, should be encouraged..

7. That churches be not too soon constituted, nor ministers hastily ordained, till they are proved to be sound in the faith, and useful in the ministry. Think on these things, and may the Lord bless you, my dear brethren, in the bonds of the gospel.
